Sphere of Influence	Assumptions	Resource	Level of influence	Governance	Commons	Change Needed	Actions
Moving from the personal 'you' to the political 'the planet' this section identifies the sphere of influence you want to be active in.	All our actions are influenced by 'known' and hidden assumptions. We need to understand them to be effective in planning our actions. Can include gender, cultural, social, knowledge assumption.	What resources are needed or influenced in this sphere, e.g. food, water, shelter, energy, transport.	Level of influence you think you have in this sphere from very high (personal) to very low (the planet).	How is this sphere controlled and by whom?	List Commons that can be identified in this sphere, e.g. air, public land, fossil fuels, community gardens, libraries, national parks, the internet, oceans.	List areas where you believe change is needed and can be achieved by you and those working with you, e.g. gender and cultural balance, housing style, water use, waste, land ownership, town planning, pollution.	List changes you can action, e.g. eating vegan or less meat, setting up Repair Cafes or Sharing Sheds, creating eco-housing villages, protesting, lobbying.
